

Rewritten Answer Sheet

A 1: Gram Sabha plays a crucial role in local governance. It helps resolve minor issues within the village and makes collective decisions through the consensus of all registered voters.

A 2: The Competition Commission was formed in 2002 under the Competition Act to ensure fair competition in the Indian market. It aims to prevent practices that harm competition and protect consumer interests.

A 3: A caste census involves collecting data on the caste composition of the population. This can help in the formulation of targeted welfare policies and resource allocation for underrepresented communities.

A 4: Lok Adalats are informal courts that help resolve disputes through mutual agreement without the need for lengthy legal procedures. They promote speedy and cost-effective justice, especially for petty cases.

A 5: BharatNet is a government initiative to provide broadband connectivity to all villages. It aims to digitally empower rural areas by enabling access to services like e-education, e-health, and digital banking.

A 6: A Parliament session is the period during which Parliament meets to conduct its business. There are typically three sessions in a year: Budget, Monsoon, and Winter Sessions.

A 7: The Blue Economy refers to the sustainable use of ocean resources for economic growth, improved livelihoods, and jobs while preserving the health of marine ecosystems.

A 8: The PM Gati Shakti Plan aims to develop an integrated and synchronized infrastructure network in India to improve logistics efficiency and boost economic growth.

A 9: Minor Forest Produce (MFP) includes items like tendu leaves, honey, and bamboo that are collected from forests by tribal communities. These are a major source of livelihood for them.

A 10: Biofortification is the process of increasing the nutritional value of crops through conventional breeding or genetic modification. It helps in tackling malnutrition, especially in rural areas.

A 11: The 103rd Constitutional Amendment provides for a 10% reservation in government jobs and educational institutions for the economically weaker sections (EWS) among the general category.

A 12: The Padhe Bharat campaign is an initiative to promote joyful reading habits among children. It encourages reading books beyond textbooks to develop creativity and critical thinking.

A 13: BIS certification ensures the quality and safety of products sold in the Indian market. It helps consumers trust the standards of goods they purchase.

A 14: India's Arctic Policy outlines the country's approach to research and strategic interests in the Arctic region. It promotes climate research, sustainable development, and international cooperation.

A 15: Bhakti literature, composed by saints like Kabir and Tulsidas, played a significant role in promoting devotion, social reform, and cultural unity across India.

A 16: The Pradhan Mantri Krishi Sinchai Yojana (PMKSY) aims to ensure water availability for every farm. It focuses on expanding irrigation coverage and improving water use efficiency.

A 17: Urban floods are caused by poor drainage, unplanned urbanization, and climate change. Proper city planning, efficient drainage systems, and early warning mechanisms can mitigate them.

A 18: The Nirbhaya Fund is dedicated to projects for women's safety. It supports initiatives like helplines, safety apps, and installation of CCTV cameras in public spaces.

A 19: The National Health Mission aims to provide accessible, affordable, and quality healthcare services to the rural population. It includes components like NHM and NUHM.

A 20: Zero Effect, Zero Defect is a policy encouraging industries to adopt eco-friendly production while maintaining high-quality standards. It promotes sustainable manufacturing.

A 21: The National Education Policy 2020 introduces reforms like mother tongue as medium of instruction, a 5+3+3+4 curricular structure, and emphasis on holistic and skill-based education.

A 22: Human rights are the basic freedoms and rights that belong to every person. They include the right to life, freedom of speech, education, and equality before the law.

A 23: The Election Commission of India is an autonomous body responsible for administering elections. It ensures free, fair, and transparent elections at all levels.

A 24: A Public Interest Litigation (PIL) allows individuals or groups to approach the courts for matters of public concern. It enhances judicial access and accountability.

A 25: Clean energy includes solar, wind, and hydro power. Promoting clean energy reduces pollution, curbs climate change, and supports sustainable development.